

CyberRebate.com Bankruptcy Filing

(rev. 10/1/03)

General Information

A petition under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code was filed by CyberRebate.com (“the Debtor”) on May 16, 2001. The case number is 101-16534-608, and the case has been assigned to bankruptcy judge Carla E. Craig.

By clicking on the link View Petition, you can view the petition that initiated this case, along with other documents filed at the time of filing of the petition.

PLEASE NOTE: In accordance with an order signed on October 24, 2002, the debtor was authorized to establish different bar dates for different groups of creditors to file proofs of claim. Notices of the fixing of such bar dates will be issued, and proofs of claim filed prior to the date of such notices will be null and void. Customized proof of claim forms, in substantially the same form as Official Form 10, will be provided to creditors along with notice of the fixing of the applicable bar date. A copy of the order can be viewed at www.cyberrebate.com.

A notice concerning this case was mailed on July 7, 2001, to parties designated as creditors in a list submitted to the court by the Debtor. (You can view the notice by clicking on the link View Notice.) If you believe you are a creditor and did not receive a notice, or if you wish to report a change of address, please write to the attorneys for the Debtor, as follows:

Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C.
190 EAB Plaza
East Tower, 15th Floor

Obtaining Copies

The court is not in a position to mail or fax copies of documents in this case. Copies may be obtained at the Clerk's Office in Brooklyn, at 75 Clinton Street, Room 209, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. The Clerk's Office is open daily, except Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. Copy machines are available in the public area, at a cost of $0.25 per page.

Filing by Fax

Filing documents (proofs of claim, e.g.) by fax is NOT PERMITTED. Only documents bearing original signatures can be accepted for filing. Please do not attempt to fax documents to us; the Court will not accept them for filing, and unauthorized transmissions delay access to the machine for legitimate purposes.
